

Sinclair's decision to broadcast for free a one-sided political movie is appalling. So much for the old concept of balanced coverage. If Sinclair insists on putting this long-form campaign ad for Bush on air, it should be forced to air Fahrenheit 9/11 to give viewers a fair and balanced view of the election. In no way should Sinclair be allowed to do this...and in no way should the FCC remain silent on this outrageous conduct by a licensed broadcaster.